

Stay in a real Niigata Home!

Homestay

Information Session

To help ALTs and foreign exchange students in Niigata experience regular life in a Japanese home, the Niigata International Association will be holding a 1-night, 2-day homestay on October 14th and 15th, 2017.

Prior to the homestay, we will be hosting information sessions in Niigata on the day below. Participants will receive a small guide explaining the importance of homestay programs and some details of Japanese living habits. Participants will also get the chance to meet and speak with Japanese families interested in becoming host families.

We hope to see you there!
