

About Personal Information

1 Basic Policy

The NIA website works to consider the protection of the privacy of its users. We strive to use proper management with regards to handling personal information under the auspices of the Niigata Prefecture Personal Information Protection Law and the Niigata International Association Personal Information Regulations.

2 About Personal Information

Personal Information is defined by the Niigata Prefecture Personal Information Protection Law Article 2 Section 1-1, specifically as names, addresses, phone numbers, e-mail addresses, and other information that can be used to designate an individual.

3 Collection of Personal Information

There is normally no need for those browsing this website to display personal information, as they can freely access the website as an anonymous user. Also, Niigata International Association does not collect personal information when it is not necessary because of work duties.

4 Appropriate Usage, Provision, and Management of Personal Information

Personal information collected on the NIA website will only be used within the bounds of the Niigata Prefecture Personal Information Protection Law and the Niigata International Association Personal Information Regulations. Also, we strive to avoid leaks, inappropriate usage, and falsification of information based on the Niigata Prefecture Personal Information Protection Law, the Niigata Prefecture Information Security Policy, and the Niigata International Association Personal Information Regulation.
